

An aging Zorro, also known as Don Diego, has been in prison for 20 years, after watching his wife being killed and having his daughter, Elena, stolen from him by his enemy, Don Rafael. After escaping from prison, Don Diego, meets up with Alejandro, a horse thief on the run, whose brother's death was caused by the wicked Captain Love. Alejandro and his brother had helped Zorro when they were children, and Don Diego sees this as fate and decides to train him to become the new Zorro. Alejandro, reluctant at first, excels in his training to become Zorro. But he is impatient to make a name for himself and exact revenge for his brother's death. During his escapades, Alejandro meets and falls in love with the beautiful Elena. She, however, is torn between her attraction for him, and her loyalty to her "father", Don Rafael.
